FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

IN RE: BROILER CHICKEN GROWER
ANTITRUST LITIGATION (NO. II)

MDL No. 6:20-MD-2977-RJS-CMR

Hon. Chief Judge Robert J. Shelby

Hon. Cecilia M. Romero

DECLARATION OF STEVEN WEISBROT
REGARDING THE IMPLEMENTATION OF NOTICE PLAN

I, Steven Weisbrot, hereby declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct:

1. I am the President and Chief Executive Officer at the class action notice and claims administration firm Angeion Group, LLC (“Angeion”). I am fully familiar with the facts contained herein based upon my personal knowledge.

2. My credentials were previously provided in the Declaration of Steven Weisbrot on Angeion Group Qualifications & Proposed Notice Plan (“Notice Plan Declaration”) (ECF No. 359-1).

3. The purpose of this declaration is to provide the parties and the Court with a summary of the work performed by Angeion to effectuate notice pursuant to the Court’s Order Approving Notice Plan and Authorizing Issuance of Notice to the Koch Settlement Class (ECF No. 366).

SUMMARY OF THE NOTICE PROGRAM

4. The notice plan approved by the Court included individual direct notice to all reasonably identifiable members of the Settlement Class via direct mail. It also included a strategic print publication schedule, programmatic display advertising, social media advertising, a press release, and the implementation of a dedicated website and a toll-free telephone line where members of the Settlement Class were able to learn more about their rights and options pursuant to the terms of the Settlement.

DIRECT NOTICE

5. The direct notice effort in this matter consisted of sending an individual long form notice to all members of the Settlement Class for which Plaintiffs had sufficient address information. For all members of the Settlement Class where the Plaintiffs possessed sufficient structured data, a pre-populated claim form was also included with the long form notice mailing. As delineated below, the overwhelming majority of members of the Settlement Class received pre-populated claim forms. However, for those members of the Settlement Class where Plaintiffs lacked sufficient structured data to pre-populate a claim form, Settlement Class members were able to answer a series of simple questions on an unpopulated claim form that will enable Settlement Class Counsel to estimate their pro rata share based on available industry data from certain alleged co-conspirators, including data available from Agri Stats, Inc. or, alternatively, to submit their own documentation to substantiate their pro rata share.

6. Between June 24, 2022 and June 29, 2022, Angeion received Grower compensation data and mailing address information for members of the Settlement Class from Plaintiffs' counsel. Angeion determined 23,375 records had sufficient structured data for the Growers associated with those records to be issued direct notice with a pre-populated claim form (records that had both (a) address data and (b) compensation history data). Angeion identified 202 records providing address information but no compensation information such that those 202 Growers could not be mailed direct notice with a pre-populated claim form but could be issued direct notice with an unpopulated claim form. As part of its notice preparation, Angeion also cross-checked the data from the Tyson and Perdue Settlements. For any record that had an updated address from sources such as the Settlement Class member, skip tracing, the USPS National Change of Address database, which provides updated address information for individuals or entities who have moved during the previous four (4) years and filed a change of address with the USPS ("NCOA"), or Plaintiffs' counsel, Angeion made those updates to the provided data files to ensure that notice was sent to the most current address known to Angeion.

7. On July 11, 2022, Angeion commenced dissemination of the long form notice and claim form by mail to the 23,577 Growers identified in the preceding paragraph. Prior to mailing, the address information was processed through the USPS NCOA database. True and correct copies of the long form notice, pre-populated claim form and unpopulated claim form are attached as Exhibits A, B and C, respectively.

8. As of September 16, 2022, a total of 1,383 mailings were returned by the USPS as undeliverable. Mailings returned to Angeion by the USPS were subjected to address verification searches (“skip traces”) in an attempt to locate updated address information. In total, 197 mailings were re-mailed because of the above-described efforts.

9. In summary, as of September 16, 2022, there were 22,391 mailings sent out that were not returned undeliverable.

10. Angeion will continue skip tracing efforts through distribution and will process the records through the USPS NCOA database prior to sending out payments from the net settlement fund.

MEDIA & PUBLICATON NOTICE

11. In my Notice Plan Declaration, I indicated programmatic advertising is a method of advertising where an algorithm identifies and examines demographic profiles and uses advanced technology to place advertisements on the websites where members of the audience are most likely to visit (these websites are accessible on computers, mobile phones and tablets). On July 11, 2022, Angeion implemented the internet banner portion of the notice plan using a desktop and mobile ad campaign to notify and drive Settlement Class members to the dedicated Settlement website where they could find more information about the Settlement and submit a claim form. True and correct copies of the internet banner notices are attached as Exhibit D.

12. In my Notice Plan Declaration, I explained that the social media campaign uses an interest-based approach which focuses on the interests that users exhibit while on the social media platform. On July 11, 2022, Angeion implemented a social media campaign via Facebook to engage with the audience via a mix of news feed and story units to optimize performance via the Facebook desktop site, mobile site, and mobile app. A true and correct copy of the Social Media advertisements are attached hereto as Exhibit E.

13. The internet banner ads delivered 582,952 impressions and the Social Media ads delivered 4,061,541 impressions. An internet impression is generally defined as an instance where an advertisement loads and displays in front of a user. So if our advertisement was shown on www.cnn.com to one Internet user, for example, that would count as one impression.

14. In addition to the notice efforts described above, the notice plan also featured a media strategy designed to reach members of the Settlement Class via a strategically geo-targeted publication notice campaign, targeted at those geographic regions for alleged co-conspirators whose Growers are members of the Settlement Class, but which produced incomplete data making direct notice to those Growers less practicable. To that end, a 1/8-page advertisement was published one time in each of the publications listed below. True and correct copies of the tear-sheets from the publications are attached hereto as Exhibit F.

PUBLICATION	DATE OF PUBLICATION	CIRCULATION
Savannah Morning News	July 11, 2022	11,220
The Claxton Enterprise	July 13, 2022	3,700
Atlanta Journal Constitution	July 11, 2022	85,628

Wooster Daily Record	July 12, 2022	6,606
Canton Repository	July 11, 2022	14,000
TOTAL:		141,383

15. On July 11, 2022, a 1/2-page advertisement was published in the Poultry Times, which has a paid circulation of over 13,000 targeted readers, of which approximately 65% are Growers, Integrators, and hatcheries. A true and correct copy of the tear-sheet from that publication is attached hereto as Exhibit G.

PRESS RELEASE

16. On July 11, 2022, Angeion caused a press release to be distributed over the National & Agriculture circuit on PR Newswire to further disseminate news of the Settlement. A true and correct copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit H.

SETTLEMENT WEBSITE AND TOLL-FREE HOTLINE

17. On July 8, 2022, Angeion established the following website devoted to this Settlement: <https://broilergrowersantitrustsettlement.com/koch-settlement/>. The home page of the website includes all important dates and deadlines, a summary of Settlement Class members' legal rights and options, as well as general information about the Action and the Settlement. The website includes an "Important Documents" page where the Settlement Agreements, long-form notice, publication notice, and claim form can be found. That page also provides relevant Court orders and court filings, including Plaintiffs' Motion and Memorandum of Law in Support of Plaintiffs' Motion for an Award of Attorneys' Fees and Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses, which was posted on August 29, 2022. Additionally, the site provides answers to frequently asked questions and a "Contact Us" page whereby Settlement Class Members can submit questions regarding the Settlement to a dedicated email address: Info@BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com. Visitors to the settlement website can download a copy of the long form notice, claim form, and other pertinent documents. Members of the Settlement Class can also submit claim forms via the Settlement Website.

18. As of September 16, 2022, the settlement website has had 4,771 page views, 5,653 unique visitors and 8,955 sessions, which represents the number of individual sessions initiated by all users. Google defines a session as a group of user interactions within a website that take place within a given time frame. For example, a single session can contain multiple page views, events, social interactions, and ecommerce transactions, provided they occur relatively simultaneously. These figures may include visitors seeking information on the Tyson/Perdue matter.

19. On July 8, 2022, Angeion established the following toll-free line dedicated to this case: 1-833-907-3700. The toll-free line utilizes an interactive voice response ("IVR") system to provide members of the Settlement Class with responses to frequently asked questions, the ability to request a claim form, and includes information about filing a claim and important dates and deadlines. The toll-free line is accessible 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and has an option to speak with a live operator during normal business hours.

20. As of September 16, 2022, the toll-free line has received 633 calls totaling 3,892 minutes, which may include callers seeking information in relation to the Perdue/Tyson matter.

CLAIM FORM SUBMISSIONS

21. The deadline for members of the Settlement Class to submit a claim form is February 6, 2023. Submission of a claim form is not necessary to receive payment from the Settlement. Rather, Settlement Class members who were sent a pre-populated claim form will automatically receive a pro rata payment unless they exclude themselves from the Settlement. As of September 16, 2022, Angeion has received a total of 599 claim form submissions and/or updated address forms. These claim form submissions are still subject to final audits, including the full assessment of each claim's validity and a review for duplicate submissions. Angeion will continue to keep the parties apprised of the number of claim form submissions received.

REQUESTS FOR EXCLUSION & OBJECTIONS TO THE SETTLEMENT

22. The deadline for members of the Settlement Class to request exclusion from the Settlement or object to the Settlement was September 23, 2022. As of September 30, 2022, Angeion has received 14 timely requests for exclusion from the Settlement. Angeion will inform the parties of any additional requests for exclusion it receives. A list containing the names of the individuals or entities requesting exclusion is attached hereto as Exhibit I.

23. Angeion has been made aware of one objection to the Settlement from Myles B. Weaver.

CONCLUSION

24. The notice plan described herein included direct notice to all reasonably identifiable members of the Settlement Class via mail, coupled with a strategic print publication campaign, programmatic display advertising, social media advertising, a press release, and the implementation of a dedicated Settlement Website and toll-free hotline to further inform members of the Settlement Class of their rights and options pursuant to the terms of the Settlement.

25. It is my professional opinion that the notice plan provided full and proper notice to members of the Settlement Class before the claims, opt-out, and objection deadlines. Moreover, it is my opinion that the notice plan was the best notice that is practicable under the circumstances and fully comported with due process and Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23.

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE
EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

NOTICE OF CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

If You Were Paid to Provide Broiler Grow-Out Services
At Any Time Between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019, A Class Action Settlement Totaling
$15,500,000 May Affect Your Legal Rights.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- A class action lawsuit has been filed against companies that contract with Broiler chicken growers to provide Broiler¹ Grow-Out Services,² alleging that Defendants³ and certain other companies (known as Alleged Co-Conspirators)⁴ unlawfully conspired to artificially reduce the amount the Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators paid to Broiler chicken growers for Broiler Grow-Out Services in violation of the federal antitrust laws and the Packers and Stockyards Act (“PSA”). Broiler Grow-Out Services refers to arrangements in which Broiler chicken growers grow young chickens until the birds reach slaughtering age, under contract with companies that supply the young birds, commonly referred to as “Integrators.”
- Defendants Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (together “Koch”) have agreed to pay $15.5 million into a Settlement Fund to settle the class action antitrust and PSA claims against them and to provide certain cooperation to Plaintiffs in this litigation against the remaining Defendants (the “Koch Settlement”). In addition, Koch has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against broiler chicken growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by Broiler chicken growers against Koch. Koch Settlement § 10.e.. Koch denies that it did anything wrong and has asserted defenses to the claims against it.

² “Broiler Grow-Out Services” means Broiler chicken growing services.

⁴ Alleged Co-Conspirators for purposes of the Settlements are Foster Farms, Mountaire Farms, Wayne Farms, George’s, Inc., Peco Foods, Inc., House of Raeford Farms, Simmons Foods, Keystone Foods, Fieldale Farms Corp., O.K. Industries, Case Foods, Marshall Durbin Companies, Amick Farms, Inc., Mar-Jac Poultry, Inc., Harrison Poultry, Inc., Claxton Poultry Farms, Norman W. Fries, Inc., and Agri Stats, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

- The “Settlement Class” for the Koch Settlement is defined as all individuals and entities in the United States and its territories that were paid to provide Broiler Grow-Out Services by any Defendant or any Alleged Co-Conspirator, or by a division, subsidiary, predecessor, or Affiliate of a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator, at any time between January 27, 2013, through December 31, 2019 (the “Class Period”).
- The Court in charge of the lawsuit will decide whether to finally approve the Koch Settlement. If approved by the Court, the Koch Settlement will resolve all of the Settlement Class members’ claims against Koch and release Koch and their affiliates from all liability for the claims alleged against them in the lawsuit, including related claims or claims referred to in the lawsuit. All the claims against the non-settling Defendants in the lawsuit will continue.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. Why did I receive a Notice?

A federal court directed this notice because it has preliminarily approved the proposed class action Settlement with Koch. You have the right to know about the Settlement, your rights, and your options before the Court decides whether to grant final approval to the Settlement.

The Honorable Chief Judge Robert J. Shelby is overseeing this lawsuit, which is called In Re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation (No. II), No. 6:20-md-02977-RJS-CMR (the “Action”), in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma (the “Court”).

You received this Notice because you may be a member of the Settlement Class. To find out if you are a member of the Settlement Class, see Question 5 below.

The people who sued are called the Plaintiffs. The companies they sued are called Defendants. The Defendants are Tyson; Perdue; Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation (“Pilgrim’s Pride”); Koch Foods, Inc.; Koch Meat Co. Inc. d/b/a Koch Poultry Co. (together, “Koch”); Sanderson Farms, Inc.; Sanderson Farms, Inc. (Food Division); Sanderson Farms, Inc. (Processing Division); and Sanderson Farms, Inc. (Production Division) (together, “Sanderson”), including each of their past, present, and future, direct and indirect, corporate parents (including holding companies), owners, subsidiaries, related entities, Affiliates, associates, divisions, departments, joint ventures, predecessors, and/or successors. As noted herein, Koch is the Defendant that agreed to settle with Plaintiffs as described in this Notice.

“Alleged Co-Conspirator” means a person or entity that Plaintiffs alleged participated in the conspiracy but are not named as Defendants in this Action. They are: Agri Stats, Inc., Foster Farms, Mountaire Farms, Wayne Farms, George’s, Inc., Peco Foods, Inc., House of Raeford Farms, Simmons Foods, Keystone Foods Fieldale Farms Corp., O.K. Industries, Case Foods, Marshall Durbin Companies, Amick Farms, Inc., Mar-Jac Poultry, Inc., Harrison Poultry, Inc., Claxton Poultry Farms, and Norman W. Fries, Inc., including each of their past, present, and future, direct and indirect, corporate parents (including holding companies), owners, subsidiaries, related entities, Affiliates, associates, divisions, departments, joint ventures, predecessors, and/or successors.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

Plaintiffs in this Action are Broiler chicken growers who provided Broiler Grow-Out Services. They grow young chickens bred for meat under contract with Integrators. The Plaintiffs represent a group of Broiler chicken growers who have similar claims against the Defendants. For purposes of this Settlement, this group is referred to as the Settlement Class (see Questions 3 and 5 for more information about the Settlement Class and whether you are part of it).

This lawsuit alleges, among other things, that Defendants entered into a conspiracy that violated federal antitrust law and the PSA by agreeing with one another and the Alleged Co-Conspirators to reduce the prices paid to Broiler chicken growers, causing the growers to be underpaid for Broiler Grow-Out Services.

All Defendants deny Plaintiffs’ antitrust and PSA claims and have asserted defenses to those claims. However, Plaintiffs have reached a Settlement with Koch for a total of $15,500,000 plus cooperation in the prosecution of Plaintiffs’ claims against the non-settling Defendants (note that Tyson and Perdue previously settled with Plaintiffs and the Settlement Class). In addition, Koch has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against Growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by broiler chicken growers against Koch. See Koch Settlement § 10. e. . Koch denies any wrongdoing.

The Koch Settlement does not impact the claims against the remaining non-settling Defendants Pilgrim’s Pride and Sanderson; this lawsuit continues against them. If the Plaintiffs reach Settlements with the other Defendants or the Plaintiffs receive a favorable money judgment against the other Defendants at trial, you will receive additional notice of those Settlements and/or that judgment.

It is possible, however, that the remaining Defendants will prevail against the Plaintiffs and there will be no further money to distribute to the Settlement Class members. There is no guarantee about the outcome of this Action.

Important information about the action and these Settlement will be posted on the website, www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com, as it becomes available. Please check the website regularly to be kept informed about any future developments or important new case documents.

3. What is a class action?

In a class action, the Plaintiffs act as “class representatives” and sue on behalf of themselves and other people or entities who have similar claims. This group is called the “class,” and the people and entities in the class are called “class members.” A single court resolves the issues for all class members, except for people who exclude themselves from the class.

In this Action, the Class Representatives are: Haff Poultry, Inc.; Nancy Butler; Johnny Upchurch; Jonathan Walters; Myles B. Weaver; Melissa Weaver; Marc McEntire; Karen McEntire; and Mitchell Mason. They are or were all Broiler chicken growers.

4. Why did the parties settle this lawsuit?

The Court did not decide in favor of Plaintiffs or Koch. Instead, Plaintiffs and Koch have agreed to the Koch Settlement Agreement to avoid the costs and risks of continued litigation. The Class Representatives and their attorneys think the Settlement is an excellent result, which will provide Settlement Class members with monetary compensation and cooperation from Koch that the Settlement Class Counsel believe will help them prosecute Plaintiffs' claims against the remaining Defendants.

WHO IS IN THE CLASS?

5. How do I know if I am a Settlement Class Member?

You are a member of the Settlement Class if you are a person or entity in the United States or its territories that was paid for Broiler Grow-Out Services by any Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator (or by a division, subsidiary, predecessor, or Affiliate of a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator) at any time between January 27, 2013, through December 31, 2019.

You are a member of the Settlement Class and eligible to participate in the Koch Settlement if you provided Broiler Grow-Out Services for any one of the Defendants or Alleged Co-Conspirators during the Class Period. Because this case involves conspiracy claims, it is not necessary for you to have provided Broiler Grow-Out Services for Koch to receive a payment.

6. What should I do if I am still not sure whether I am included?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement Class, you can ask for free help by calling the Settlement Administrator at 1-833-907-3700 or email Info@BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com for more information.

An operator is available to answer your questions during normal business hours.

THE SETTLEMENT

7. What does the Settlement provide?

Koch has agreed to pay $15,500,000 into a Settlement Fund to settle the lawsuit against them in exchange for the release by Settlement Class members of the claims against them in this Action. In addition, the Settlement will help the Plaintiffs pursue their claims against the remaining Defendants because Koch has agreed to provide certain cooperation to Plaintiffs in the litigation against the remaining Defendants and has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against Growers and restrictions on its ability to enforce bans on collective or class actions against Koch by Growers. Koch Settlement § 10. You can view the Settlement Agreement, including the release of claims, at the Settlement Website at BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

A portion of the Settlement Fund, subject to approval by the Court, will be used to pay Settlement Class Counsel for their time in pursuing this lawsuit and to reimburse them for out-of-pocket costs they have incurred. Amounts remaining after deductions for attorneys' fees, litigation costs and other expenses (see Questions 3, 15) will be distributed to Settlement Class members who do not exclude themselves from the Settlement pro rata, based on their qualifying payments from Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators for the provision of Broiler Grow-Out Services (see Question 10).

Additional details about the Settlement are contained in the Settlement Agreement, which is available at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

8. How will payments be calculated?

At this time, it cannot be known how much you will receive from the Settlement.

The amount remaining in the Settlement Fund after deductions for attorneys' fees and litigation expenses and costs for notice and Settlement administration, will be distributed pro rata to eligible Settlement Class members with valid claims based on payments received from Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators for Broiler Grow-Out Services. That means your payment will be based on the total payments you received from Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators during the Class Period as a proportion of the total payments received by all eligible Class Members with valid claims.

As a simple example, if a Settlement Class member received payments totaling $100 dollars, and the total payments to all eligible Class Members with valid claims is $10,000, that class member would be entitled to 1% of the total amount to be distributed.

The amount you receive will depend on how much the Court allows in attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, costs for notice and Settlement administration, how many valid claims are submitted by eligible Settlement Class members, and the total amount of payments made for Broiler Grow-Out Services during the Class Period to eligible Settlement Class members with valid claims.

As described below (see Questions 21-23), the Court will conduct a Fairness Hearing and decide whether a) to finally approve the Settlement, b) to approve the proposed pro rata allocation plan; and c) to approve the Settlement Class Counsel's request for fees and reimbursement of costs.

For information on how to make a claim, see Question 9 and www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

HOW TO GET A PAYMENT—MAKING A CLAIM

9. How can I get a payment?

If you are a member of the Settlement Class, there are two ways for you to receive a payment from the Settlement:

1. Pre-Populated Claims Forms with Pre-Populated Payment Information: If you received a Pre-Populated Claim Form that already contains pre-populated payment information and you have not excluded yourself from the Settlement, you do not need to do anything further to receive a payment. This payment information was provided by Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators from their payment records. Your pro rata share will be calculated based on the payment amounts in your Claim Form. If you agree with the pre-populated payment information or otherwise do not respond to the Pre-Populated Claim Form, your pro rata share will be determined based on the pre-populated amount.

If you disagree with the pre-populated payment information in the Pre-Populated Claim Form or if you believe the information in the Pre-Populated Claim Form is incomplete (for example, it is missing payments you received during certain years), you have the right to submit a corrected Claim Form, which must be accompanied by supplemental documentation supporting your additions or clarifications (such as settlement sheets for Broiler flocks you raised or yearend statements from the Integrator with whom you contract or contracted) postmarked by February 6, 2023. If validated by the Settlement Administrator, your pro rata share will be based on this corrected or supplemental information. Please follow the instructions on the Pre-Populated Claim Form to submit a corrected and/or supplemental Claim Form.

2. Unpopulated Claims Forms without Pre-Populated Payment Information: If you have received a Claim Form that does not include any pre-populated payment information (or you did not receive a Claim Form at all) and you want to receive a payment, you MUST complete and submit a Claim Form, postmarked by February 6, 2023. If your Claim form does not have pre-populated payment information this means that the Settlement Administrator does not have information from Defendants or Alleged Co-Conspirators about the amount you were paid for Broiler Grow-Out Services during the Class Period. If you are or were a Grower for Wayne Farms, Fieldale Farms, Claxton Poultry, Case Farms, or Keystone Foods, it is more likely you received an Unpopulated Claim Form or no Claim Form at all and will have to complete and submit a Claim Form to receive a payment.

An Unpopulated Claim Form can be obtained at the Settlement Website www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com. You have two options for completing and submitting an Unpopulated Claim Form.

First, if you have information on your total payments for Broiler Grow-Out Services by year, provide that information with supporting documentation of those payments. If validated by the Settlement Administrator, your pro rata share will be based on the payment information you provide.

Second, if you do not have information or documentation regarding the total payments you received for Broiler Grow-Out Services, you must provide the years in which you provided Broiler Grow-Out Services, the name of the company (or companies) for which you provided Broiler Grow-Out Services in each year, the number of farms you operated (if more than one), and for any partial years you provided Broiler Grow-Out Services (for example, if you quit raising Broilers in the middle of a year covered by the Class Period) the number of flocks you grew during each partial year. If validated by the Settlement Administrator, your pro rata share will be based on that information along with available industry payment data.

Please follow the instructions on the Unpopulated Claim Form.

If you did not receive a Pre-Populated Claim Form and you do not complete and submit a valid Claim Form postmarked by the deadline, you will not receive a payment from the Settlement Fund, but you will still give up the right to sue Koch in a separate lawsuit related to the legal claims these Settlements resolve.

You should mail your corrected or supplemented Pre-Populated Claim Form or completed Unpopulated Claim Form to the address below, postmarked no later than February 6, 2023 or upload it to the Settlement Website at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com using the instructions there. You can also request that a Claim Form be sent to you by calling the Settlement Administrator or by sending a written request to the Settlement Administrator by mail or by email:

10. When will I get my payment?

Even if the Court finally approves the Settlement and approves the allocation and distribution plan, there still may be appeals of that decision. The Settlement Fund cannot be distributed until all appeals are resolved. It is hard to estimate how long that might take. Further, even if there are no appeals, it is difficult to predict how long the claims process will take. Further, it is possible that other Defendants may settle the claims against them and that distribution of the proceeds from the Koch Settlement may be delayed so that the proceeds from multiple settlements may be distributed at the same time.

Updates regarding the Settlement and when payments will be made will be posted on the Settlement website, www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

11. Will Koch, any of the other Defendants, or any of the Alleged Co-Conspirators know that I have submitted a claim or received an award from the Settlement?

No. All information you provide in connection with receiving an automatic payment or submitting a claim form in this action will be maintained as strictly confidential and will not be made available publicly or to any Defendant or Alleged Co-conspirator. Only Settlement Class Counsel, the Court, and the Settlement Administrator will have access to any information you provide, including Your identity, in connection with receiving an automatic payment or submitting a claim form in this action.

If, however, you exclude yourself from the Settlement or object to the Settlement, the filings of exclusions and objections with the Court will publicly reveal your identity.

12. What happens if I move or change my mailing address?

If you have moved since you received this Notice, you may update your address with the Settlement Administrator by completing the “Claimant Information” section of the Pre- or Un-Populated Claims Form and by mailing or emailing completed information to:

You may update your mailing address even if you are not disputing or supplementing any of the pre-populated payment information in the Pre-Populated Claims Form you received.

You may also update your address at any time during this litigation by contacting the Settlement Administrator at the above address to notify them of your new mailing address. Because there may be additional settlements reached with the other Defendants or there may be a judgment in Plaintiffs’ favor, it is important that the Settlement Administrator have updated address information so they may send you notice of such settlements or judgments.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING YOU

13. Do I have a lawyer in the case?

Yes. The Court appointed the law firms of Hausfeld LLP and Berger Montague PC (“Settlement Class Counsel”) to represent you and the other Settlement Class Members.

They can be contacted at:

--	---	--

You will not be charged for their services or for contacting them. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense. See Question 14.

14. Should I get my own lawyer?

You do not need to hire your own lawyer because Settlement Class Counsel is working on your behalf at no out of pocket charge to you. If you want your own lawyer, you may hire one, but you will be responsible for any payment for that lawyer's services. For example, you can ask your own lawyer to appear in Court for you if you want someone other than Settlement Class Counsel to speak for you. You may also appear for yourself at the Fairness Hearing without a lawyer. See Questions 21-23.

15. How will the lawyers be paid?

You do not have to pay Settlement Class Counsel. Settlement Class Counsel, who have not yet been paid for their services or reimbursed for their expenses, will seek approval from the Court for a) an award of attorneys' fees up to one third of the gross Settlement amount, and b) reimbursement for litigation costs they advanced in pursuing the Claims up to $3,000,000, also from the Settlement Fund. The fees will compensate Settlement Class Counsel for investigating the facts, litigating the case, and negotiating and administering the Settlement over the last five years. The Court will decide the amount of fees and/or expenses to award.

Settlement Class Counsel will file their motion for fees and reimbursement of litigation expenses at least 30 days before the deadline to object to the Settlement. The motion will be filed on the Settlement Website at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com, where you will also be able to review it.

16. If I participate in the Settlement, can I sue Koch for the same thing later?

No. Unless you exclude yourself from the Koch Settlement (See Question 17 below), you will give up the right to sue Koch related to the legal claims the Koch Settlement resolves.

Details on the claims that you release unless you exclude yourself are detailed in the Koch Settlement, which is available at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT CLASS

17. Can I get out of the Settlement Class?

If you do not want to receive any benefits from the Settlement, and you want to keep your right, if any, to sue Koch on your own about the legal issues in this Action, then you must exclude yourself from the Settlement Class for the Koch Settlement.

This is called “opting out” of the Settlement Class. The deadline for requesting exclusion from the Koch Settlement is September 23, 2022 (postmarked).

To exclude yourself from the Settlement, you must submit a written request by mail. Your request for exclusion must include:

- The name of the class member wishing to opt out;
- Their current address;
- A statement that the opt out is a Settlement Class member and was compensated for Broiler Grow-Out Services by a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator, or by a division, subsidiary, predecessor, or affiliate of a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator during the Class Period, along with documentation showing membership in the Settlement Class;
- an express statement that they wish to be excluded from the Koch Settlement in In re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation (No. II), No. 6:20-md-02977-RJS-CMR; and
- The Class member’s signature.

Your request for exclusion must be mailed to the Settlement Administrator with a postmarked date on or before by September 23, 2022:

In re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation (Koch Settlement)
ATTN: Exclusion Request
PO Box 58220
Philadelphia, PA 19102

If you exclude yourself from the Koch Settlement, you are telling the Court you do not want to be part of the Settlement. You will not be eligible to receive any money from the Settlement; you will not be eligible to object to the Settlement, and; you will keep any rights you currently have to separately sue Koch related to the legal claims the Settlement resolves.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

18. How do I tell the Court if I do not like the Settlement?

If you are a member of the Settlement Class and do not exclude yourself from the Koch Settlement, you may object to the Koch Settlement. If you are a member of the Settlement Class and do not exclude yourself from the Koch Settlement, you may also object to Settlement Class Counsel’s request for attorney’s fees, unreimbursed litigation costs and expenses, and the proposed plan of allocation.

You cannot ask the Court to modify the Settlement; the Court can only approve or deny the Settlement.

If you wish to object to the Koch Settlement, the proposed plan of allocation or distribution, or Settlement Class Counsel’s request for attorney’s fees, and unreimbursed litigations costs and expenses, you must do so in writing. To object, you must file a document with the Court by September 23, 2022 saying that you object to the Koch Settlement in In re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation No. II, No. 6:20-md-02977-RJS-CMR. You must include:

- The objector’s full name, address, and telephone number;
- A statement saying that the objector objects to the Settlement, the proposed plan of allocation, the request for fees and expenses, or another component in In re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation (No. II), No. 6:20-md-02977-RJS-CMR;

- Whether the objector plans to appear at the Fairness Hearing;
- Proof of membership in the Settlement Class, including any documentation evidencing the objector was compensated for Broiler Grow-Out Services by a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator, or by a division, subsidiary, predecessor, or affiliate of a Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator, during the Class Period;
- The specific reasons supporting the objection, along with any supporting materials or documents that you want the Court to consider;
- The identity of the objector's legal counsel, if any; and
- The objector's signature.

You must mail the written objection by First Class U.S. Mail, postmarked no later than September 23, 2022 to the Court at the following address: United States District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, 101 N. 5th St., Muskogee, OK 74401.

You must also mail your objection by First Class U.S. Mail to Settlement Class Counsel and Counsel for Koch at each of the following addresses by September 23, 2022:

Settlement Class Counsel	Settlement Class Counsel

If your objection is not postmarked by the September 23, 2022 and does not include the information listed above, it may be rejected by the Court.

You may also appear at the Fairness Hearing, either in person or through your own attorney. See Questions 14, 21-23. If you wish to appear at the Fairness Hearing you must include a statement in your written objection that you intend to appear at the hearing and wish to be heard. If you appear through your own attorney, you are responsible for paying that attorney.

19. What is the difference between objecting and asking to be excluded?

Objecting is telling the Court that you disagree with something about the Settlement while excluding yourself tells the Court that you do not wish to participate in the Settlement at all. You cannot object to the Koch Settlement if you exclude yourself from it. If you exclude yourself from the Koch Settlement, you cannot object to the Settlement because the Settlement no longer affects you.

20. Will anyone other than the Court and the lawyers know that I have objected or excluded myself?

Yes. If you exclude yourself or object to the Koch Settlement, the filings of exclusions and objections with the Court will publicly reveal your identity.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

21. When and where will the Court decide whether to approve the Settlement with Koch?

The Court will hold a Fairness Hearing at 2:00 p.m. on October 28, 2022 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, located at 101 N 5th St, Muskogee, OK 74401. If the Court determines that it is appropriate, the hearing may be conducted remotely by telephone or other electronic means. If the Court decides to hold the hearing remotely, Settlement Class Counsel will post that information on the website devoted to the litigation www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com and provide any Settlement Class member that has informed the Court that it intends to participate at the hearing with the information required to participate remotely.

The Court may reschedule the Fairness Hearing or change any of the deadlines described in this notice. The date of the Fairness Hearing may change without further notice. Be sure to check the website, www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com, for news of any such changes.

At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the Koch Settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will also consider Settlement Class Counsel's request for attorney's fees of up to one third of the gross Settlement Fund, unreimbursed litigation costs and expenses not to exceed $3,000,000, and the proposed plan of allocation and distribution. If there are objections, the Court will consider them at the hearing. The Court may decide to permit those Settlement Class members who have previously notified the Court that they wished to appear to speak at the hearing.

At or after the Fairness Hearing, the Court will decide whether to finally approve the Settlement and the related matters raised by Settlement Class Counsel.

22. Do I have to come to the Fairness Hearing?

No. Settlement Class Counsel will answer any questions the Court may have. You may attend at your own expense if you wish or pay your own lawyer to attend, but it is not necessary. If you send an objection, you do not have to come to Court to talk about it. So long as you mailed your written objection postmarked by September 23, 2022, the Court will consider it.

23. May I speak at the hearing?

You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Fairness Hearing. To do so, you must include a statement in your written objection (see Question 18) that you intend to appear at the hearing. Be sure to include your name, address, telephone number, and signature as well. You cannot speak at the hearing if you excluded yourself from the Settlement Class.

If you do not object to the Koch Settlement but still wish to speak at the Fairness Hearing, you must send a letter or other written document that expressly states that the letter or document is your “Notice of Intention to Appear” in In Re Broiler Chicken Grower Antitrust Litigation (No. II), No. 6:20-md-02977-RJS-CMR. Include your name, address, telephone number, and your signature. You must send your “Notice of Intention to Appear” to the addresses listed in Question 18, postmarked no later than September 23, 2022.

The Court will decide whether you will be allowed to speak at the Fairness Hearing.

IF I DO NOTHING

24. What happens if I do nothing at all?

If you do nothing, you will remain a member of the Settlement Class and will have released all your claims against Koch related to the claims in this Action.

If you received a Pre-Populated Claim Form that already has information about the total payments you received from any Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator on the Claim Form, and you do nothing, you will still receive a payment. But you may correct or supplement that information by returning the Claim Form if you wish. (see Question 9.1).

If you received an Unpopulated Claim Form that does not include any information about the total payments you received from any Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator, or you did not receive a Claim Form at all, and you do nothing, you will not have the right receive any portion of the Settlement Fund. You must complete and submit a Claim Form to the Settlement Administrator to receive a payment (see Question 9.2).

25. Are more details about the Settlement available?

Yes. This notice summarizes the Settlement with Koch. BROILER CHICKEN GROWER PRE-POPULATED CLAIM FORM

Compensation records maintained by the Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators indicate that you are a member of the Settlement Class in this action, and are therefore eligible to receive payment from the Settlement with Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (collectively referred to as “Koch”).

The Settlement Class includes: “All individuals and entities in the United States and its territories that were compensated for Broiler¹ Grow-Out Services² by a Defendant or Co-Conspirator, or by a division, subsidiary, predecessor, or affiliate of a Defendant or Co-Conspirator, at any time during the period of January 27, 2013, through December 31, 2019 (the “Class Period”). Of note, you do not need to have provided Broiler Grow-Out Services for Koch to receive a payment from the Koch Settlement Fund, you need only have provided Broiler Grow-Out Services for any Defendant or Alleged Co-Conspirator.

Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators have provided to Settlement Class Counsel the total compensation that you were paid by one or more of them for Broiler Grow-Out Services between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019. ESTIMATE YOUR PAYMENTS OVER THE CLASS PERIOD

Option Two: If you do not know what the total amount you were paid is and/or you do not have supporting documentation of those amounts such as settlement sheets for the Broiler flocks you raised, the Settlement Administrator can generate an estimate of your claim amount based on available data.

If you provide (1) the name of the Defendant(s) or Alleged Co-Conspirator(s) for which you grew broilers, (2) the years in which you provided those services, (3) the number of farms you operated, and (4) the number of flocks you grew in a given year if you performed Broiler Grow-Out Services for a partial year (e.g., half a year), then if your claim is validated by the Settlement Administrator, your pro rata payment will be calculated based on available industry data.

³ Note, the Number of Farms you Operated column is not asking for the number of chicken houses on your farms, but instead whether you operated separate and distinct farming operations at distinct locations, and if so, how many. If you only operated one farm, simply answer “1.”

⁴ You only need to populate the Number of Flocks Column if you performed Broiler Grow Out Services for a partial year, for example, if you started with your Integrator or stopped with your Integrator mid-year.

opment. Neighborhoods like his are becoming scarce again and he’s not sure how much longer they’ll last. He only hopes it’ll be throughout his children’s lifetime. “You can’t stop progress,” Rahn said, “Everything is moving out this way now.”

Growing the city through annexation

Only a small fraction of Port Wentworth’s residents ended up deciding the city’s fate. To annex, the vote needed a double majority referendum on both sides of the city border, according to state regulations. Some were unaware an annexation vote was even taking place. According to a Dec. 29, 2005 Savannah Morning News article, only about 400 of the more than 1,400 possible voters participated. Inside the city, the vote was 292-58. From the previously unincorporated area, the vote was 50-24.

Rural pineland made up most of the once-unincorporated area, save for a few neighborhoods, such as the Pine Forest subdivision built in 1963 just north of Georgia 30; the mostly Black, agricultural communities along Monteith and Meinhard roads; and historically Black, rural neighborhoods on Saussy and Berrien Roads.

Georgia Benton, a longtime Black resident of the Saussy community, said she and her husband resisted the change. As a mostly white city in the Deep South, Port Wentworth had an ugly reputation, she said.

“If I had known they were going to annex us in, I wouldn’t have come out this side,” said Benton. “You didn’t stay in that town after five o’clock.”

When Benton was a young girl, her mother worked at a laundromat in downtown Port Wentworth. At the time they lived in Yamacraw Village, a public housing development on downtown Savannah’s western edge.

Benton recalls the fear that gripped her mother when she missed the 5 p.m. bus after work one day. The only way back to Yamacraw was to travel on foot. To this day, Benton remembers her mother’s journey, walking from one Black neighborhood to the other as safety checkpoints.

“She said, ‘Baby, I knew if I made it to Gordon Road (later named Grange Road), I’d be okay,’” recounted Benton, “‘If I made it past Francis Bartow, I’d be okay.’”

When the annexation vote prevailed, thousands of acres of land, including Georgia’s five-acre homestead, were brought into the city’s fold.

It would be several years before the city took advantage of the new acreage and over a decade before Benton and her neighbors launched protests against a city that failed to account for their quality of life.

In time, rapid development of Port Wentworth’s promised land would churn vigorously, and, along with it, existing tensions.

The explosive growth of ‘new’ Port Wentworth

Bring in water and sewer and, soon, the development will follow. This was the logic of Port Wentworth’s municipal planners in the year 2000.

While the rest of Chatham County’s population grew, Port Wentworth, stymied by industry, dropped another 700 people in the 1990s, threatening their per-capita-based funding. If Port Wentworth was to still exist, it needed more people, more housing. The saving grace: A controversial $2 million investment to extend water and sewer infrastructure to the northwest portion of the city. To help pay for the venture, then-mayor John Hinely’s administration levied the first property tax in 20 years, upsetting existing residents who voted him and his supporters out the next term. What followed their ousting was unprecedented. In the next two decades: three major housing developments would bring in more than 8,000 households and a demographic that greatly differed from the tight-knit old Port Wentworth. City officials, eager to save the diminishing town from industry, would fail to see their missteps, blinded by the untapped potential of the more than 5,000 acres. “We were hungry for development, we wanted homes up there,” said past council member Bill Herrin, who served several terms starting in 2001. “We saw the growth in Pooler and we wanted it in Port Wentworth.” So, when developers began descending on the ripened land, people thought Port Wentworth was finally entering its renaissance. An April 29, 2001 Savannah Morning News article noted that several residential housing developers had called Port Wentworth officials to express interest, with support from area banks. “It seems like everyone is looking to us,” then-councilmember Ed Young is quoted as saying in that news story. Finally, Port Wentworth would thrive.

Annexation leads to a tale of two cities

On the morning of February 2, 2006, Georgia Benton and about 35 other north Port Wentworth residents marched up the steps to the Georgia Capitol. The group, which encompassed the North Port Wentworth Citizen’s Council, had chartered a bus to travel the 250 miles to Atlanta to demand the reversal of the 1989 annexation.

For Benton and other residents on the north, the incorporation brought only strife and disparities. Before, under county jurisdiction, their homes were kept up, they said. The ditches along their property were unclogged, their yards didn’t flood and their pleas were not ignored.

The city council seemed intent on expanding the subdivisions on the north-side, said Benton, and the area’s existing communities were being forsaken.

The north siders had a unified complaint: Resources were sorely lacking in an area poised for rapid growth. Over 16 years, the city hadn’t built any parks or recreation fields in their part of town, they said.

Now, another 16 years later and a doubling in population, residents lament the same things and council members make the same promises.

“Why do we need so many warehouses when we don’t have a park for our kids to play baseball,” asked Hanks at the March 24 council meeting.

The solution for the north side, over a decade and a half ago, was to split the city into voting districts so the north end would be guaranteed council representation. So far, that has spurred little progress, and even reinforced divisions. Those representing one side of town, or perceived to be in their political alignment, are demonized by the other.

Arguments have stalled council meetings and shut down city hall, impeding progress and distracting from quality of life issues that stem from years of poor city planning. Decisions from the past have resulted in dire consequences for a city that continues to face pressure from industrialization bolstered by the ports. The evolution has resulted in a dissatisfied north side. Rural and agricultural areas feel sidelined by ignorance or indifference from local government administrations. New development has outpaced community resources. Young families in still-growing subdivisions wonder why there is no recreation, no libraries, no urgent care centers, no sit-down restaurants – markers of what could be a flourishing city. Meanwhile, the aging community in the old part of the city has watched its downtown district fade out and small businesses leave town. Newer, mainly transient residents attracted by lower housing costs in the area are rethreading the fabric of a once-homogenous and more permanent community. Holbrook, a long time resident of downtown Port Wentworth who served a term as mayor in 2001, has seen the change and feels the uncertainty. “I have people come by here and say, ‘You’re having breakfast right here in container berth 13 and you don’t even know it,’” said Holbrook, “It may be some day -- probably for my grandchildren, but I don’t think it’s going to be for me.” On nearly all sides, old Port Wentworth is being squeezed by industrialization. The north end is feeling the pressure as well. Residents see manufacturing and logistics warehouses cropping up along the GA-21 corridor and in their neighborhoods. They can’t help but worry if residential life in the city will be sustainable in the coming decades. For the time being, Holbrook believes they’re safe. “They (the Georgia Ports Authority) have projects going on on the other side of the river,” said Holbrook, referring to plans to build terminals on Hutchinson Island and Jasper County, S.C. “But if they need it, they’ll take it.” Nancy Guan is the general assignment reporter covering Chatham County municipalities. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

If You Were Paid to Provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at Any Time Between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019, A Class Action Settlement Totalling $15,500,000 May Affect Your Legal Rights.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (together “Koch”) have agreed to settle a class action lawsuit brought against them by broiler chicken growers who allege that Koch and other companies unlawfully conspired to artificially reduce the amounts they paid to broiler chicken growers for Broiler Grow-Out Services. Koch denies that it did anything wrong and has asserted defenses to the claims against it.

Plaintiffs are broiler chicken growers who raised broilers for Tyson, Perdue, Pilgrim’s Pride, Sanderson Foods, and/or Koch (together, “Defendants”) and/or other integrators (referred to as an Alleged “Co-Conspirator” below). Plaintiffs represent a class of broiler chicken growers who have similar claims against Defendants and the Alleged Co-Conspirators.

What does the Settlement provide? Koch will pay $15,500,000 into a Settlement Fund, which will be used to pay Settlement Class members, attorneys’ fees and litigation expenses, and costs for notice and Settlement administration. Koch will also offer certain cooperation in the ongoing litigation against the remaining non-settling Defendants and has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against broiler chicken growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by broiler chicken growers against Koch. Koch Settlement § 10.

Am I eligible to receive a payment from the Settlement? You may be eligible to receive a payment if you reside in the U.S. or its territories and were paid by any Defendant or any Alleged Co-Conspirator to provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at any time between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019. To learn who the Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators are, visit www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

How do I get a payment from the Settlement? If you received a Pre-Populated Claim Form and the information contained therein is correct, you do not need to do anything further to receive a payment. If you disagree with the information contained in the Pre-Populated Claim Form you received, you may submit the Claim Form with corrected information and documentation. If you received an Unpopulated Claim Form, you must complete and submit that Claim Form by February 6, 2023, to receive a payment from the Settlement Fund. You may access a Claim Form from the website and submit it online or download and mail it to the address on the Claim Form. Claim Forms are also available by calling 1-833-907-3700 or emailing Info@BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

What are my rights? If you are a Class member and do nothing, you will be bound by the Settlement and will give up any right to sue Koch in separate lawsuits related to the legal claims in this lawsuit. If you want to keep your right to separately sue Koch, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by September 23, 2022. If you do not exclude yourself, you may object to the Settlement and/or ask for permission to appear and speak at the Fairness Hearing but only if you do so by September 23, 2022. Complete information is available at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

The Court’s hearing. The Court will hold a hearing at 2:00 p.m. on October 28, 2022 to decide whether to approve the Settlement, grant the requested attorneys’ fees of up to one-third of the gross Settlement amount, and litigation expenses not to exceed $3,000,000. You or your own lawyer may appear and speak at the hearing at your own expense, but there is no requirement that you or your own lawyer do so. The hearing may occur remotely, over a Zoom platform, or it may occur in person, at the United States District Court for the District of Oklahoma, located at 101 N. 5th St., Muskogee, OK 74401. Please check www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com for updates as to the location of the hearing.

CONTINUING COVERAGE WAR IN UKRAINE

Assessing what’s left: ‘I miss my home so much’

Helping those with homes in ruins will be enormous task.

Emma Bubola
and Megan Specia
c. 2022 The New York Times

When she fled her home in eastern Ukraine, Hanna Obuzhevanna, 71, gave her keys to her neighbor to water the blooming cyclamen on her balcony, thinking she would be back in just a few weeks.

Three months later, she is sleeping with her two sons in a room of an old church building in the city of Pavlograd, in central Ukraine. Back home, a missile wrecked her bedroom, soldiers destroyed her piano and the town is in Russian hands.

“I am sitting in someone else’s damp room. I am wearing someone else’s sweater. The dishes are not mine. I am sleeping on a bed that is not mine. Outside the window, everything is also foreign. I miss my home so much,” she said. “But there is no way I will go back there if there are Russian occupiers.”

Uprooted but still within Ukraine

Obuzhevanna and her family are among more than 10 million Ukrainians uprooted from their homes – roughly one-third of the population whose cities are now crater-pocked ruins, occupied territory or in the crosshairs of artillery.

About 5 million Ukrainian refugees have fled west across borders into the European Union, a migration through the continent unseen since World War II, but another humanitarian crisis has transformed life inside Ukraine: that of the millions of people who, like Obuzhevanna, have sought refuge in other parts of the country.

Ukraine faces a herculean challenge to help them.

The country is struggling to fend off a formidable aggressor that has just seized one province and is moving to take another, undaunted by heavy casualties on both sides. It is trying to navigate a devastating economic crisis, with the cost of rebuilding alone estimated at $750 billion. And all the while, with the outcome of the war unknown, Ukraine needs to somehow help the displaced millions either return to their homes or find new ones entirely.

Most of the internally displaced people are now coming from the country’s east, especially the Donbas region, where the Russian offensive has already emptied the land of about half its prewar population.

With that advance, more people are being forced from their homes every day simply to survive.

Despair grows; decisions ahead

With no diplomatic solution to the war in sight, despair is growing among the displaced. With each

Valentyna Chernenko surveys the wreckage of her home last week after it was destroyed by shelling in mid-March in the village of Moschun, near Kyiv, Ukraine. Millions of people are estimated to be displaced inside Ukraine, posing a challenge that will loom long after the war. EMILE DUCKE/THE NEW YORK TIMES

A man surveys the damage to his cousin’s home in Sloviansk. As citizens wonder whether their land will return to Ukrainian control, many fear that not enough will be left to matter. MAURICIO LIMA FOR THE NEW YORK TIMES passing day, as more and more towns are reduced to the conditions of Mariupol, the southern city pulverized by weeks of Russian siege, many are becoming increasingly worried that there might be nowhere to go back to at all.

Some of the territory where the war is playing out in the east has been fought over for years. In 2014, pro-Kremlin separatists declared two breakaway republics there.

Now many people displaced by the invasion fear that their land may never return to Ukrainian control and are divided about what they would do in that scenario. Some say they will find a way to return. Others insist they would rather lose everything than live under Russian control.

Most realize that even if Ukraine retakes their hometowns, there could be little left behind by the Russian army’s scorched-earth tactics – which have demolished houses, water lines and power plants – other than dust and debris.

Boarding trains and buses, civilians have poured out of cities and towns across eastern Ukraine, fleeing for the relative safety of the west and the capital, Kyiv. Some have left in humanitarian convoys, navigating treacherous roadways under the threat of gunfire and shelling. Others have left on foot, literally running for their lives.

“There are now no schools, hospitals, businesses,” said Vladislav Obuzhevannyi, Obuzhevanna’s son, who lived in Rubizhne – a city that, along with its province of Luhansk, was taken by Russia. “Now it’s a dead city.”

With a meager government subsidy, Obuzhevannyi and his mother could not afford to rent a place. They call the old church building where they are staying the “chicken coop,” but the building, made available to them by a local priest, was the only option available to them for free.

Remembering ‘destroys me from sadness’

Shelters have sprung up in public buildings. Gyms and university dorms have been converted, and some modular homes have been set up. The majority of internally displaced people, much like refugees abroad, are women and children, and many face shortages of food, water and basic necessities, according to the United Nations. A shortfall in international aid has further strained local resources,

U.N. experts say.

“The state was not ready for such a scale of displaced persons in many areas,” Vitaly Muzychenko, the deputy minister of social policy for Ukraine, said at a news conference this week.

Many Ukrainians were not ready, either, and were able to take only the barest essentials when they fled.

When the war began, some packed just their documents and a handful of belongings, hopeful they could be back soon. Parents who were along the front and unable to leave because of jobs in the military or essential industries sent their unaccompanied children west, in the care of their teachers. Others simply ran as bombs fell around them, with nothing but the clothes on their backs.

In east Ukraine, the uncertainty of war was already painfully familiar in communities where the conflict between pro-Russian forces and Ukrainian troops has raged for eight years.

Ukrainians there could never be sure when violence might erupt, how long it might last and when they might get back if they had to flee. Some gave instructions to relatives or friends to feed pets they left behind. Some left out tools to start repairs once they came back.

But this time, many fear they never will and have begun to try to adjust to this new reality.

Oksana Zelinska, 40, who was the principal of a preschool in Kherson, a southern city now occupied by Russian forces, fled her home in April with her children, a co-worker and her co-worker’s children. Her husband remained behind, and she would like to return. But at least for now, she is staying in the west for her children.

Zelinska has begun volunteering at the community kitchen that she used when she first arrived, peeling potatoes and preparing food for the dozens who troop in daily. “When we came here, I needed to do something,” she said. “It was difficult, and I didn’t want to sit around getting depressed.”

In Pavlograd, Obuzhevanna misses riding her bicycle out of town back home and taking care of her tidy vegetable garden there, surrounded with fruit trees. But recently, near her “chicken coop” of a home in the church, she found a square of unkept land.

She has managed to plant tomatoes, cucumbers, potatoes, onions and zucchini. The reminder of her old routine “destroys me from sadness a bit,” she said. But, she said, “I’m getting used to it slowly.”

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

If You Were Paid to Provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at Any Time Between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019,

A Class Action Settlement Totalling $15,500,000 May Affect Your Legal Rights.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (together "Koch") have agreed to settle a class action lawsuit brought against them by broiler chicken growers who allege that Koch and other companies unlawfully conspired to artificially reduce the amounts they paid to broiler chicken growers for Broiler Grow-Out Services. Koch denies that it did anything wrong and has asserted defenses to the claims against it.

Plaintiffs are broiler chicken growers who raised broilers for Tyson, Perdue, Pilgrim's Pride, Sanderson Foods, and/or Koch (together, "Defendants") and/or other integrators (referred to as an Alleged "Co-Conspirator" below). Plaintiffs represent a class of broiler chicken growers who have similar claims against Defendants and the Alleged Co-Conspirators.

What does the Settlement provide? Koch will pay $15,500,000 into a Settlement Fund, which will be used to pay Settlement Class members, attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, and costs for notice and Settlement administration. Koch will also offer certain cooperation in the ongoing litigation against the remaining non-settling Defendants and ask for agreement to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against broiler chicken growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by broiler chicken growers against Koch. Koch Settlement § 10.

Am I eligible to receive a payment from the Settlement? You may be eligible to receive a payment if you reside in the U.S. or its territories and were paid by any Defendant or any Alleged Co-Conspirator to provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at any time between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019. To learn who the Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators are, visit www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

How do I get a payment from the Settlement? If you received a Pre-Populated Claim Form and the information contained therein is correct, you do not need to do anything further to receive a payment. If you disagree with the information contained in the Pre-Populated Claim Form you received, you may submit the Claim Form with corrected information and documentation. If you received an Unpopulated Claim Form, you must complete and submit that Claim Form by February 6, 2023, to receive a payment from the Settlement Fund. You may access a Claim Form from the website and submit it online or download and mail it to the address on the Claim Form. Claim Forms are also available by calling 1-833-907-3700 or emailing Info@BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

What are my rights? If you are a Class member and do nothing, you will be bound by the Settlement and will give up any right to sue Koch in separate lawsuits related to the legal claims in this lawsuit. If you want to keep your right to separately sue Koch, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by September 23, 2022. If you do not exclude yourself, you may object to the Settlement and/or ask for permission to appear and speak at the Fairness Hearing but only if you do so by September 23, 2022. Complete information is available at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

The Court's hearing. The Court will hold a hearing at 2:00 p.m. on October 26, 2022 to decide whether to approve the Settlement, grant the requested attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the gross Settlement amount, and litigation expenses not to exceed $3,000,000. You or your own lawyer may appear and speak at the hearing at your own expense, but there is no requirement that you or your own lawyer do so. The hearing may occur remotely, over a Zoom platform, or it may occur in person, at the United States District Court for the District of Oklahoma, located at 101 N. 5th St., Muskogee, OK 74401. Please check www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com for updates as to the location of the hearing.

From wire reports

Red Sox score 9 straight rally past Yanks 11-6 for split

BOSTON — The Boston Red Sox lost every one of their first eight series against AL East opponents this season. In the ninth, a four-game set against the first-place Yankees, they opened with back-to-back losses and trailed by two runs in the 10th inning of Game 3.

That's when things turned around. One night after rallying to win in extra innings, Boston scored nine unanswered runs on Sunday to come back from a four-run deficit and beat New York 11-6. The split improved the Red Sox to 0-8-1 in series against AL East teams — not great, but a boost as they head into the All-Star break with series against the Rays and Yankees..

"I don't think anyone would have bet that we would have split it after the first two. You're definitely lying if you say that," said shortstop Xander Bogaerts, who was added to the AL roster for the All-Star Game earlier Sunday. "Especially how the first two games went," he said, alluding to the 12-5 loss on Friday in which outfielder Jackie Bradley Jr. pitched the ninth. "It's nice to give the fans something to come back to the ballpark and look forward to."

BOONE BOOTED

Yankees manager Aaron Boone was ejected by plate umpire Tripp Gibson in the middle of the seventh. Boone came out to argue, animatedly, after Sawamura struck out Stanton looking to end the top half of the inning.

STARS

Yankees ace Gerrit Cole, closer Clay Holmes, catcher Jose Trevino and left-hander Nestor Cortes were added to the AL roster for the All-Star Game on Sunday. They join starters Aaron Judge and Stanton. The Red Sox have two players headed to Dodger Stadium for the game on July 19: Bogaerts was added as a reserve, and third baseman Rafael Devers was elected as a starter.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Yankees New York starter Jameson Taillon took a hard chopper from Vazquez off his right hip in the first inning, recovered and made the play at first. Taillon remained in the game.

Red Sox: Devers missed the last two games of the series with back pain. ... RHP Nathan Eovaldi pitched three-plus innings for the Triple-A Worcester Red Sox on a rehab assignment, allowing two runs on five hits and striking out four. He has been on the injured list since June 12 with lower back inflammation.

Ohtani a 2-way All-Star again; 6 Yankees, 5 Braves, Astros

NEW YORK — In a city of stars, the Angels' Shohei Ohtani and the Dodgers' Clayton Kershaw will be in the spotlight July 19 at Dodger Stadium.

World Series champion Atlanta also has five. Pitcher Max Fried, catcher Travis d'Arnaud, shortstop Dansby Swanson and DH William Contreras joined outfielder Ronald Acuña Jr., who was elected by fans.

Contreras will be the NL's DH in place of Philadelphia's Bryce Harper, who was elected to start but broke his left thumb on June 25.

Djokovic tops Kyrgios for 7th Wimbledon, 21st Slam trophy

BY HOWARD FENDRICH
AP TENNIS WRITER

WIMBLEDON, England — Novak Djokovic waited. He waited for Nick Kyrgios to lose focus and lose his way. Waited to find the proper read on his foe's big serves. Waited until his own level rose to the occasion.

Djokovic is not bothered by a deficit — in a game, a set, a match. He does not mind problem-solving. And at Wimbledon, for quite some time now, he does not get defeated.

Djokovic used his steady brilliance to beat the ace-delivering, trick-shot-hitting, constantly chattering Kyrgios 4-6, 6-3, 6-4, 7-6 (3) on Sunday for a fourth consecutive championship at the All England Club, seventh overall there, and 21st from all Grand Slam tournaments.

"It's weird. I felt like he didn't do anything amazing today," said the unseeded Kyrgios, offering an assessment with which some might not concur, given that Djokovic accumulated 31 winners and merely eight unforced errors over the last two sets, while facing zero break points in that span.

"But he was just so composed. That's what I was just thinking to myself. In big moments, it just felt like he was never rattled. I feel like that's his greatest strength: He just never looks rattled," said Kyrgios, about whom those words likely have not been uttered. "He just looks completely within himself the whole time. Didn't look like he was playing overaggressive, even though it felt like he was playing big."

Serbia's Novak Djokovic holds the winners trophy as he celebrates after beating Australia's Nick Kyrgios to win the final of the men's singles on day fourteen of the Wimbledon tennis championships on Sunday in London.

Among men, only Roger Federer owns more Wimbledon titles than Djokovic, with eight, and only Rafael Nadal owns more major trophies, with 22.

"The more you win, it's logical the more confident, the more comfortable you feel out there every next time you step out on the court," said the top-seeded Djokovic, who was pleased to hear some spectators at Centre Court chanting his nickname, "No-le! No-le!" as he served out the final point of a tremendously well-played tiebreaker.

As of now, Djokovic will not be able to try to pull even with Nadal by winning the U.S. Open, which begins in late August: The 35-year-old Serbian can't enter the United States because he decided not to get any shots against COVID-19, the same reason Djokovic missed the Australian Open in January.

"I'm not vaccinated," Djokovic said Sunday, "and I'm not planning to get vaccinated."

Aside from his experience — 32 Grand Slam final appearances versus one for the unseeded Kyrgios — his skill and his clutch gene shined in the concluding tiebreaker, and all of those qualities were present for two particularly pivotal games that helped swing the match.

"Key moments," Djokovic called them.

They were games in which Djokovic steered himself, and Kyrgios blinked. And games that Kyrgios would not let go as he began engaging in running monologues, shouting at himself or his entourage (which does not include a full-time coach), earning a warning for cursing, finding reason to disagree with the chair umpire he fist-bumped before the match, and chucking a water bottle.

With Djokovic serving for the second set at 5-3, Kyrgios got to love-40 — a trio of break points. But Kyrgios played a couple of casual returns, and Djokovic eventually held. When that set ended, Kyrgios waved dismissively toward his box, sat down and dropped his racket to the turf, then grouched to no one in particular: "It was love-40! Can it get any bigger or what?! Is that big enough for you?!"

Djokovic noticed. "He knew on this stage, when Nick starts to talk, he's going to be vulnerable," said Djokovic's coach, 2001 Wimbledon champion Goran Ivanisevic. "That happened."

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF OKLAHOMA

If You Were Paid to Provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at Any Time Between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019,

A Class Action Settlement Totalling $15,500,000 May Affect Your Legal Rights.

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (together "Koch") have agreed to settle a class action lawsuit brought against them by broiler chicken growers who allege that Koch and other companies unlawfully conspired to artificially reduce the amounts they pay to broiler chicken growers for Broiler Grow-Out Services. Koch denies that it did anything wrong and has asserted defenses to the claims against it.

Plaintiffs are broiler chicken growers who raised broilers for Tyson, Perdue, Pilgrim's Pride, Sanderson Foods, and/or Koch (together, "Defendants") and/or other integrators (referred to as an Alleged "Co-Conspirator" below). Plaintiffs represent a class of broiler chicken growers who have similar claims against Defendants and the Alleged Co-Conspirators.

What does the Settlement provide? Koch will pay $15,500,000 into a Settlement Fund, which will be used to pay Settlement Class members, attorneys' fees and litigation expenses, and costs for notice and Settlement administration. Koch will also offer certain cooperation in the ongoing litigation against the remaining non-settling Defendants and has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against broiler chicken growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by broiler chicken growers against Koch. Koch Settlement § 10.

Am I eligible to receive a payment from the Settlement? You may be eligible to receive a payment if you reside in the U.S. or its territories and were paid by any Defendant or any Alleged Co-Conspirator to provide Broiler Grow-Out Services at any time between January 27, 2013 and December 31, 2019. To learn who the Defendants and Alleged Co-Conspirators are, visit www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

How do I get a payment from the Settlement? If you received a Pre-Populated Claim Form and the information contained therein is correct, you do not need to do anything further to receive a payment. If you disagree with the information contained in the Pre-Populated Claim Form you received, you may submit the Claim Form with corrected information and documentation. If you received an Unpopulated Claim Form, you must complete and submit that Claim Form by February 6, 2023, to receive a payment from the Settlement Fund. You may access a Claim Form from the website and submit it online or download and mail it to the address on the Claim Form. Claim Forms are also available by calling 1-833-907-3700 or emailing Info@BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

What are my rights? If you are a Class member and do nothing, you will be bound by the Settlement and will give up any right to sue Koch in separate lawsuits related to the legal claims in this lawsuit. If you want to keep your right to separately sue Koch, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by September 23, 2022. If you do not exclude yourself, you may object to the Settlement and/or ask for permission to appear and speak at the Fairness Hearing but only if you do so by September 23, 2022. Complete information is available at www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com.

The Court's hearing. The Court will hold a hearing at 2:00 p.m. on October 28, 2022 to decide whether to approve the Settlement, grant the requested attorneys' fees of up to one-third of the gross Settlement amount, and litigation expenses not to exceed $3,000,000. You or your own lawyer may appear and speak at the hearing at your own expense, but there is no requirement that you or your own lawyer do so. The hearing may occur remotely, over a Zoom platform, or it may occur in person, at the United States District Court for the District of Oklahoma, located at 101 N. 5th St., Muskogee, OK 74401. Please check www.BroilerGrowersAntitrustSettlement.com for updates as to the location of the hearing.

US renewable energy hit record level in April

Incentives, cost aiding solar, wind power push

Elizabeth Weise
USA TODAY

The amount of electricity generated by renewable resources hit a record 28% in April, a breakthrough number that shows how important renewable energy has become in U.S. energy markets.

“It’s a ‘wow’ moment,” said Peter Kelly-Detwiler, an energy analyst and author of “The Energy Switch,” a recent book about the transition to a carbon-free energy economy.

The percentage of U.S. electricity produced by renewable energy from wind, solar and hydroelectric dams has been steadily rising, from 8.6% in April 2001 to this April’s 28%. Those numbers were released this week by the U.S. Energy Information Administration, which tracks energy data for the nation.

There are several reasons to explain the surge. At the top is that wind and solar installations dominated U.S. energy buildouts.

“Basically, the only things we’ve added to the grid in the past decade are wind, solar and natural gas,” said Harrison Fell, an economist and engineer at Columbia University, where he co-leads the Power Sector and Renewables Research Initiative.

That’s happening for two reasons. The first is cost. Renewables are simply the most economically competitive power currently available, Kelly-Detwiler said.

In 2021, the cost of producing a megawatt-hour of electricity from a new wind turbine was $26 to $50. The same amount of electricity from the cheapest type of natural gas plant ranged from Renewable energy is becoming a bigger player in U.S. energy markets.

GETTY IMAGES

$45 to $74, according to Lazard, a financial advisory firm that publishes annual estimates of the cost of producing electricity.

Federal and state mandates and incentives to increase the amount of clean energy used also help, Fell said.

“When you do the math on what’s the most profitable thing to add, it’s often going to be wind and solar at this stage,” he said.

Weather was also a factor. April tends to be a particularly windy month, and this spring was windier than most, Fell said.

There’s also less power coming into the grid from fossil fuels and nuclear in the spring. That’s because electricity demand is generally lower because of the mild weather and fossil fuel and nuclear power plants use the time for maintenance and refueling, which reduces their production, he said.

Top US diplomat to visit Japan

Matthew Lee
ASSOCIATED PRESS

BANGKOK – U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinken will pay a brief condolence visit to Japan next week following the assassination of former Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe, the State Department said Sunday.

Blinken will travel to Tokyo on Monday to pay his respects to the former leader and meet with senior Japanese officials before returning to Washington from an Asian tour that he is now wrapping up.

“Secretary Blinken will travel to Tokyo, Japan, to offer condolences to the Japanese people on the death of former Prime Minister Abe Shinzo and to meet with senior Japanese officials,” State Department spokesperson Ned Price said in a statement. “The U.S.-Japan Alliance is the cornerstone of peace and stability in the Indo-Pacific and has never been stronger.”

Blinken is in Thailand on a pre-scheduled visit and had been in Indonesia on Friday attending a Group of 20 nations’ foreign ministers meeting in Bali when Abe was shot and killed.

On Saturday in Bali, Blinken said Abe’s killing was a “tragedy” for the world and, like many other current and former U.S. officials, lauded the former prime minister for his vision.

“Prime Minister Abe was a transformative leader, a statesman, someone of truly global stature,” Blinken said. He added that Abe’s death had shaken the G-20 meeting with many of his foreign minister colleagues expressing shock and distress at the news.

Foods, Aaron Kimball, former CTO of Zymergen, and Blaine Templeman, former chief administrative officer and chief legal officer of Aduro Biotech.

Together, they will support Shiru in areas of strategy, technology, and leadership as the company continues to scale the discovery and production of novel, naturally occurring ingredients for the plant-based food industry. All three bring years of combined C-suite level industry experience to Shiru.

In addition to his leadership with Tyson Foods, Banks is a co-founder for Vergent Bioscience, Advisor for X, the Moonshot Factory, and is on the Board of Directors at Omeat. Banks brings impressive food industry expertise and an extensive background in venture capital, high-tech, and health to the Shiru advisory board.

"Shiru's platform for improving ingredients in many different food products is impressive to me, but I'm equally impressed with Shiru's approach to partnering," Banks said. "While it is valuable for some companies to make their own branded products, Shiru wants to provide ingredients to large, existing food players, shortening their timeline to reach real impact. My work with Shiru's leadership is focused on finding the most effective and efficient pathways to commercial scale so we can see Shiru's customers thriving quickly in a food ecosystem that's changing before our eyes."

Kimball brings years of technology and software expertise to the Shiru advisory board, previously serving as Chief Technology Officer at Zymergen. In addition, Kimball co-founded WibiData in 2010, was the first employee at Cloudera, and holds several patents on predictive modeling for microbial engineering.

"Shiru aims to be the discovery engine for the world's leading food manufacturers," Kimball said. "With their focus on applying validated science and technology from fields like protein science and machine learning to the specific needs of the food industry, I see the discovery platform the Shiru team is developing as a unique and promising path to the challenge of creating sustainable, plentiful food ingredients for all."

Templeman brings to Shiru more than 20 years of experience counseling biotechnology companies in the development and commercialization of their products and the protection of their intellectual property portfolios, including in his former role as a corporate and intellectual property partner at Arnold & Porter LLP. Templeman most recently served as chief administrative officer and chief legal officer at Aduro Biotech.

"The biopharma industry has robust models for scaling protein operations. Shiru is seizing on these learnings as it pioneers new approaches in the food industry," Templeman said. "Like so many others in tech and bio, I have come to understand that changing our food system is one of the most important things we can do to create a more sustainable world. That's why I'm so eager and passionate to bring my experience to Shiru."

Shiru's new advisory board members join Shiru's existing scientific advisor Dr. Ranjani Varadan and will provide guidance and support to Shiru as the company scales partnerships within the food industry to help create the next generation of sustainable ingredients. Shiru's Flourish platform combines machine learning, precision fermentation, and high-throughput testing to identify, evaluate, and produce naturally occurring proteins that can serve as functional ingredients to replace unsustainable, animal-based products in food. Through this discovery platform and partnerships with leading food organizations, Shiru can help provide alternative, sustainable ingredients that achieve the same performance as animal-based products, without sacrificing nutrition or taste.

"We're thrilled to welcome Dean, Aaron, and Blaine to our advisory board and look forward to working together in our mission to feed people more sustainably," said Dr. Jasmin Hume, founder and CEO of Shiru. "Their expertise in the food and technology industries will provide great benefits to Shiru as we continue to scale the company while discovering and producing next-generation ingredients for leading food companies."

A federal court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

PHILADELPHIA, July 11, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Koch Foods, Inc. and Koch Meat Co., Inc. (doing business as Koch Poultry Co.) (together "Koch") have agreed to settle a class action lawsuit brought against them by Broiler chicken growers who allege that Koch unlawfully conspired to artificially reduce the amounts they paid to Broiler chicken growers for Broiler Grow-Out Services. Koch denies that they did anything wrong and have asserted defenses to the claims against them.

Plaintiffs are Broiler chicken growers that raised broilers for Koch ("Defendant"). Plaintiffs represent a class of Broiler chicken growers who have similar claims against Defendants and the Alleged Co-Conspirators.

What does the Settlement provide?

Koch will pay $15.5 million into a Settlement Fund to settle the class action antitrust, and PSA claims against them and to provide certain cooperation to Plaintiffs in this litigation against the remaining Defendants (the "Koch Settlement"). In addition, Koch has agreed to certain restrictions on its ability to enforce arbitration provisions against Broiler chicken growers and on its ability to enforce provisions restricting collective or class actions brought by Broiler chicken growers against Koch. Koch Settlement § 10.e.

If you want to keep your right to separately sue Koch, you must exclude yourself from the Settlement by September 23, 2022. If you do not exclude yourself, you may object to the Settlement and/or ask for permission to appear and speak at the Fairness Hearing but only if you do so by September 23, 2022.
